

Perspectives on Conflict

Exploring legal and other forms of regulation

Panels - 9.30am

Panel 1 - Criminal law perspectives / Senate Room

Chair: Clare Frances Moran, University of Glasgow

Aisling O'Sullivan, University of Sussex

"Preventing Impunity" vs "Avoiding Abuse": Battling for Hegemony in the debate on Universal Jurisdiction in International Law.

Anni Pies, University of Glasgow

Why Africa? Selectivity at the International Criminal Court.

Noelle Higgins, National University of Ireland, Galway

Conflicting Justice Systems. Legal Pluralism and International Justice Mechanisms.

Panel 2 - Perspectives on conflict resolution / Room 253

Chair: Muriel Finnigan, University of Glasgow

Ross Hendy, University of Cambridge

Conflict resolution techniques by routinely unarmed police officers: a practitioner's consideration of the literature.

Julian Sidoli del Ceno, University of Birmingham

Mediation: Process and Plurality in Dispute Resolution.

Athene Richford, University of Glasgow

The Particular Made Universal: Conflict and Hegemony in International Legal Institutions.

Perspectives on Conflict

Exploring legal and other forms of regulation

Panels - 11.15am

Panel 3 - Media perspectives / Senate Room

Chair: Stephen Collins, University of Glasgow

Giuliana Tiripelli, University of Glasgow

Conflicting perspectives during peace. Journalism in the age of the Israeli-Palestinian Oslo Accord.

Hen Wilkinson, University of Bristol

Individual, group and social conflict as a route to resilience?

Panel 4 - Perspectives on resource sharing / Room 253

Chair: Ploykaew Porananond, University of Glasgow

Boris Verbrugge, Ghent University

Legal complexities and mineral resource conflicts in the Philippines.

Michael Kearney, University of Sussex

The war crime of transfer of settlers.